CARRIED

2. Special Business

- Halloween Ideas – how to make Halloween fun in lieu of costume parades
 - Bring Halloween spirit back Covid-19 friendly
 - Mrs. Kosman had a great idea of a classroom door decorating contest and hoping PAC would supply prizes for the winners.
 - Possible categories Most colorful, most creative, most fun, most made from recycling, most silly or most funny.
 - 2 categories decided. “Most creative” and “Most made out of recyclables.”
 - No pizza award given due to Covid
 - Prizes can be pencils, silly putty, plastic skeleton, but must sit for 72 hours in isolation.
 - Office staff to make the decision on the winner.
 - Thea will take pictures of each door entered and will be posted on the ARE twitter account.
 - Food prizes are a concern – Kathy K will contact Amanda Reber (Health and Safety Team) to see if we can give food prizes, such as Purdy’s Halloween suckers.
 - We could give out glow-sticks too.

Moved/Seconded

THAT the PAC pay $100 for prizes for Halloween Decorating Door Contest

CARRIED

3. Spirit Wear

- What are we going to do for Spirit Wear this year?
 - Water bottle with pop lid. Waiting for a sample.
 - Bottom of the bottle is stainless steel, top is red.
 - Possible in white or black.
 - Dragons logo to be used (all black). Checking on possibility of adding an matte area to write students name
 - What is the maximum we can order?
 - Buy an extra 50 water bottle above what's ordered online. Minimum we have purchase is 60.
 - Masks
 - Check quality of mask before we offer them for purchase.
 - Red and Black T-shirts
 - Red and Black Zip up and Pullover hoodies. No try on due to Covid-19 Minimums are required.
- If PAC kept a stock on hand of the most popular sizes, we could have them for available for new students that start part way through the year. Typically, 8-10 students per year that come part way through the year.
