All THSS Skiers and Boarders

Forms are now in for our 4 Thursday nights skiing up at Mount Seymour! As an added bonus, for all students who don't need rentals/lessons, the price includes a full season pass for the year!

We also still have spots available for our Saturday and overnight trips to Whistler. These all open to all THSS students, grade 8-12, beginner to black diamond shredder. See Mr Williams, Ms Fischer or Ms Jennings for forms or information. All forms are due by the end of November so don't miss out!

Attention all dancers and dance enthusiasts! Dance Club is looking for performers for a special performance at Thomas Haney's Hoe Down. Come and learn choreography Tuesdays after school in the yoga room, 3:00pm – 4:15pm

Soap Making in the Science Lab

We are planning on making soap on the following days/blocks. Please sign up with Ms. Coleman ahead of time to reserve your spot!

Grads: Don't forget to book your portraits online at www.mountainwest.ca See page 66 in your planner for more details about your photo sitting

Aboriginal Education

- Career Fair & Post Secondary Information Event: Tues Nov 26 at Katzie First Nation health center. Forms are due back soon so please see Natalie in 1109 for more information.
- Free Lunch: Friday Nov 29 - Wraps and sandwiches from the cafeteria. Please join us.

Manga Club: We are now the Manga and Anime club! We are continuing to meet every Wednesday at lunch. We have a new meeting location - next to the library in room 2011! Some of our students are interested in exhibiting their own Manga/Anime art in the future so, if this is of interest, please join us. Bring your lunch and chat manga/anime/art and more!

Book Club: Our next book will be Stepsister by Jennifer Donnelly. We will meet in December (date TBA) after marks cutoff. Books have arrived! Stay tuned for details! New members are always welcome. See a teacher-librarian for information.

Postcards for Peace will be mailed on Friday. See a teacher-librarian for a postcard (or more than one!) that will be sent to a veteran or active military officer to thank them for their service.
