Time to show our school spirit, just in time for Halloween! Leadership is encouraging you to participate in the spirit days next week by dressing up and joining in the fun! The themes are:

Monday: Hat and Jersey Day
 Tuesday: Thomas Haney Spirit Wear (or colours!)
 Wednesday: Halloween colours
 Thursday: Throwback Thursday
 Friday: Halloween Costumes

Photo highlights of your costumes can be sent to @thssleadership on Instagram to be featured in our story throughout the week! There will also be a costume contest on Friday through Instagram! Send us a picture of your costume & our teacher panel of judges will select winners (and there will be prizes!).

Writing Contest: The First Page student writing challenge asks students in Grades 7 to 12 from across Canada to write the first page of a speculative novel set 150 years in the future. The challenge tasks young writers with imagining how current world issues and trends will evolve in the next century. The contest will be open for submissions from Nov. 4 to Nov. 26, 2020. Writer David A. Robertson will be choosing the winner. If you're interested in reading his work, visit thsslibrary.com to place a hold on one of his amazing books! Contest details can be found at: bit.ly/cbcred123

Want a new book to read? Visit thsslibrary.com to place a hold and we will deliver the book to your class. The library is being used as a classroom space this year, but

	we are mobile and will deliver! E-mail megan_fulgueras@sd42.ca if you want a book recommendation. If you have overdue books from last year, or from your elementary school, please return them to the THSS Library ASAP. If you have an overdue book from this year, and you still need it, please ignore overdue notices and keep it until you have finished.
