If you're interested, contact Ms. Jennings (now Mrs. Oldham) or Ms. Dimmock. carrolyn_oldham@sd42.ca sim_dimmock@sd42.ca https://au.reachout.com/articles/how-to-use-music-for-mental-health Stretching: Stretching is of course important to include into your daily fitness and exercise routine, but it is also beneficial all on its own. Stretching keeps your muscles flexible, strong and healthy and we need that flexibility to maintain a range of motion in our joints. Stretching can improve posture, range of motion, decrease back pain, prevent injury and decrease muscle soreness. There are numerous stretching and flexibility videos online, so find the one that works best for you and try to get some stretching incorporated into your daily or at least weekly routine.
