Aboriginal Education

- Ab Ed Leadership: All Ab Ed students are invited to join Ab Ed leadership this year! Our first event will be a Full day leadership training at the end of October. The day will be focused on cultural teachings and learning leadership skills from First Nations mentors in our community. These opportunities look great on a resume and count as volunteer hours. More details to come!
- Grade 11/12 Grad Prep: Attention all Ab Ed grade 11/12 students. Please arrange a time to meet with ASW Natalie Robertson to discuss your post-secondary aspirations and talk about scholarships and program opportunities. Set up a time in person, via email or on teams.
- Grad Moccasins: Exciting opportunity for our grade 12 graduates this year (we may also have space for a few grade 11's). Natalie & Ms. Von Krogh are teaming up with Manitobah Mukluks to offer a moccasin making workshop for you!! Workshops will be taught by an Indigenous artist via zoom from Manitoba once per month on Monday afternoons 1:00-2:30. A portion of the funding for supplies will be provided. Please talk to Natalie or Ms. Von Krogh to sign up as spaces are limited to 15 students.
