Library news

Library books are now past their due date and your families will be receiving weekly emails with a list of overdue items. If you still need a book for a class, please keep it until you have finished your work! If you are finished with a book, please return it to the library or Science Kiosk as soon as possible. We will be sending invoices to your TA soon. We don't want the money; we just want the books! If you think that there is a mistake on your library record, please speak to a teacher-librarian as soon as possible.

Students who are returning to THSS in the fall can borrow up to 10 items from the library for summer reading. As well, visit the Maple Ridge Public Library for their teen summer reading contests and activities! More information is available here: https://www.fvrl.bc.ca/summer_reading_clubs.php

It's Pride Month and Indigenous Heritage Month! Come down to the library and check out a book from one of our displays!

National Indigenous Peoples Day is on Wednesday, June 21st. Join us in the library for a special Zoom presentation from David A. Robertson, author of Strangers and The Barren Grounds! It will play live from 9:30-10:30 then we will play the recording in periods 3, 4, and 5.

The Maple Ridge Public Library is also hosting a Canada Day poetry contest! Write a poem 7-30 lines long and enter it to win a $50 gift card for Black Bond Books! Submissions are due by 5pm on Friday, June 23rd.
