Breaking news! Thomas Haney Secondary's first newspaper is looking for writers and editors. If you are interested in being a founding member of The Haney Times, please add your name to the sign up sheet in the English kiosk or in the library. Check in with Ms. Dimmock, Ms. Berg, or Mr. Carriss for more info.

Whoo-hoo! Homework Club is starting up next week on Tuesday October 10th. Homework Club is an informal club that anyone can show up to, whenever they need to! We meet in the English Great Hall each Tuesday around 2:45 and stay until four o'clock. If you need some time after school to work on assignments, to get a little help in any subject area, or to work on your secret novel-- Please come join us! Bring your homework and come to Homework Club! Tuesdays from 2:45-4:00.

Language Challenge Exams

Students who wish to write the language challenge exam for any of the following languages, should see Mr. Cowie in Rm 2130 for more information. The link to the language challenge application package can be found at Lunch Book Club: We meet every Monday at lunch. We will be discussing The Poet X on October 16th and White Smoke on November 20th. See Mrs. Fulgueras for a book! Please remember to return your books when you've finished so that others can borrow them.

Manga Club: We meet every Thursday at lunch. New members are always welcome!

Somewhat Virtual Book Club: Our October read is a creepy one! Read White Smoke by Tiffany D. Jackson this month and join us at 3pm on Wednesday, November 1st for a Zoom discussion with schools from across North America! You can join the Zoom with us in the library or from home. Our next book will be Firekeeper's Daughter. Join us for one book or all of them! New members are always welcome!

Grade 10 students: You are writing your Literacy 10 exam the week of October 30th. You will attend a Literacy Exam prep session in the library with your PE 10 class this month. If you're not taking PE 10, feel free to drop in with any class. An exam prep schedule and exam information are at thsslibrary.com under "Literacy 10" tab.
