

THE FAMILY EDUCATION & SUPPORT CENTRE

IS EXCITED TO PRESENT

QMUNITY WORKSHOP

NOVEMBER 14 2017 6-9PM

Introductory in content, wherein we spend most of the time discussing definitions of words of significance in the LGBTQ community/ies. Overview of the gender binary and gender spectrum models, to bring to light how we understand and talk about gender and sexuality as a society (media, pop culture, in schools, etc), and how this rigid understanding of gender and sexuality can be limiting and exclusionary. Provide QMUNITY referrals to services and community contacts/referrals when appropriate Will cover definitions of words of significance in the LGBTQ community/ies, a greater exploration of the gender binary and spectrum models; will have time for participatory modules throughout. Exercise on gendered pronouns; respectfully asking people their personal pronouns and how often we assign someone a gender based on assumptions. Will also facilitate conversations on creating inclusive spaces and building out allyship. Exercise around privileges denied to members of the LGBTQ2S community, while exploring intersecting identities of oppression within the LGBTQ2S community/ies. Provide tools around supporting someone coming out.

COST: $30 a person

LOCATION: The Family Education & Support Centre 22554 Lougheed Hwy. Maple Ridge

ph: 604-467-6055

Website: <http://familyed.bc.ca/>

Queersmart
by QMUNITY